CDOT On-The-Job Training (OJT) Program Workshops

CDOT has a New On-the-Job Training (OJT) Specification for all federally-funded highway construction projects awarded after September 6, 2018. To help prime and subcontractors learn about OJT requirements and changes in the new specification that may impact training plans and OJT goals, CDOT is offering two FREE workshops that will cover:

- Overview of CDOT's OJT Program and New Special Provision
- Out-of-the Box and Approved OJT Programs
- OJT Goals and Good Faith Efforts
- Eligibility, Enrollment and Counting Hours
- Wages & Reimbursement
- OJT Forms and Submittals
- OJT Support Services: RISE (Resources to Improve and Support Employment)

Expert Instructor

Mónica Vialpando is a CDOT Labor and Contract Compliance Specialist. She is an expert in labor laws, contractor compliance, and CDOT business systems. She was instrumental in the development of the new OJT specification.
